Speed dating event a success

Updated: 2/8/2006 10:00 PM

By: Capital News 9 Web Staff

Thousands of singles across the nation take their shot at love and possibly winding up in the record books.

Just in time for Valentine's Day, The Van Dyck in Schenectady hosted a speed-dating party.

An estimated 48,000 singles attended parties just like this one throughout the country.

Their goal was to set the record for speed-dating with more than 43,000 six-minute speed-dates in a single evening.

Organizers said six minutes is all you need to tell whether or not you click with someone.
